

Accuracy promotes David Thornes from the Singapore office to partner

Neuilly-sur-Seine, 16 January 2019

Accuracy continues to strengthen its international network and its activities in Asia through the promotion of David Thornes, of the Singapore office, to partner. The independent advisory firm created in 2004 has 17 offices and 400 consultants, including 48 partners.

David Thornes, a graduate of Centrale Paris (2002), has been promoted to partner of Accuracy, which he joined in 2005. He helped develop the firm for almost ten years by taking part in numerous international operations. He had a crucial role in launching the Singapore office in January 2016, which now has over ten employees, and operates throughout the Asia-Pacific region.

For Frédéric Duponchel, managing partner of Accuracy “David is a top-quality professional, capable of combining all our expertise and providing our clients with bespoke solutions, all whilst being pragmatic and efficient. We offer our consultants a rich and fulfilling career. The success of our office in Singapore since 2016 confirms that our independent model is in line with market expectations and paves the way for us to strengthen our presence in the region’s principal hubs.”
