

Accuracy grows its international presence by opening its 18th office in Hong Kong

Neuilly-sur-Seine, 4th February 2019

After setting up in Singapore in 2016, Dubai in 2017, and Beijing and Casablanca in 2018, Accuracy continues to grow its global presence by opening an office in Hong Kong.

At the start of this year, Accuracy, the independent advisory firm for company management and shareholders making strategic decisions, notably in transactions, disputes, and crises, opened its 18th office, this time in Hong Kong. This new office reinforces Accuracy's presence in Asia and the Middle East, as the firm has already been active for several years in India, Singapore and Dubai.

The synergies between Hong Kong and Accuracy's other offices are innumerable. In line with its one firm strategy, Accuracy considers its offices as hubs, capable of mobilising teams that are high quality, international, multidisciplinary, and specifically tailored to the needs of the client. The firm's strategy is to accompany its clients, French or otherwise, throughout the world.

The Hong Kong office is led by Xavier Gallais (HEC 1996), an Accuracy partner since 2008, who joined the firm after several years at Arthur Andersen followed by Suez Environnement (financial management). Xavier Gallais has almost 20 years of experience; he has taken part in numerous international operations and has led over 200 engagements as an Accuracy partner.

For Frédéric Duponchel, CEO and managing partner of Accuracy: "This new office confirms our strategy. A one firm culture; multisectoral, international and mobile teams; mastery of new technologies... All this allows us to provide services and advice with ever greater added value to our clients, where they need us. Maintaining a fast rhythm for opening offices enriches the firm with new skills and cultures and widens perspectives for our teams."
